FRIDAY, APRIL 10, 1857.

GOOD FRIDAY.—The present week is crowded with anniversaries of vast moment and the most thrilling interest to the religious world. But that which exceeds them all in importance—which most tenderly touches all of the moral sensibilities of man—which commemorates the most sublime event that ever transpired on earth—which is at once full of the deepest pathos and the grandest tragedy—that anniversary occurs to-day. This is known in the ecclesiastical calendar as Good Friday. It is kept sacred as the day upon which the Savior of Mankind died upon the cross in expiation of the sins of the world.

The anniversary is not properly recognized by any other sect than the Episcopalians and Catholics. Why a day of such moral grandeur is not regarded with more interest by all classes of pious people, we cannot imagine.

To-day religious services will be held in the various Catholic and Episcopal Churches of the city.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE IN NEW YORK.—Hitherto the law in New York has been that niggers might vote if they possessed a specified amount of property. The present New York Legislature, resenting the late decision of the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case, has changed the law so that hereafter all niggers may vote in that State whether they have property or not. The next time the New York Black Republicans get mad, they will probably change the law again so as to give each nigger two votes. And, if they keep on getting mad, no doubt they will ultimately give to their niggers the exclusive right of suffrage.

Some may think that Black Republicanism might find a less ridiculous and more decent mode of showing its spunk. We don't know however but that, in a State where the whites are mean enough to submit to nigger suffrage, nigger government is about as good as any other.

Lord John Russell, in a recent speech, opposed the idea of exempting commercial vessels from naval warfare. He remarked: "A stipulation not to use our naval force against a commercial vessel would be a great provocation to war. You would be exposed to more frequent wars, and the cause of humanity would not be promoted."

Of course it cannot have escaped the sagacity of Lord John Russell that the argument he uses to justify the seizure and confiscation of private property on the ocean would be just as good if used to justify the seizure and confiscation of private property on land.

The Albany Statesman says: Col. Fremont has acted like a very sensible man since his recent political defeat. He has to all appearance disowned the affair from his mind.

It seems to us that the American people have treated Col. Fremont very much as he has treated "the affair."

THE NEW COUNCIL.—Mayor Barbee has issued notices calling for a meeting of the newly elected Board of Aldermen and Common Council at their respective halls to-night. After organization, various matters of public interest will demand attention.

Mayor Wood, it is said, intends resigning the mayoralty of New York, in consequence of the Legislature having passed the new charter and police bills.

The horticulturalists in the neighborhood of New Albany think that the fruit was not so badly injured as supposed. There is yet a prospect for an average crop.

George Peabody was in Indianapolis on Tuesday, and received visits from the dignitaries of that city and State.

William Campbell was killed at a house of ill fame in Pittsburg, on Monday night, by James Jones. Both were men of bad character.

Capt. Jeremiah Baldwin, charged with forgery at Memphis, has been acquitted.

Our readers already know the Rev. Mr. Hempstead as one of the most powerful poets of the nation:

A WINTER NIGHT.

BY REV. T. HEMPESTEAD.

A glorious bard has sung the evening wind
In tones that warble like a brook in June;
But had he wrapped the "drapery of his couch
About him" in this bleak and haunted room,
This antique, mellowed, moaning room,
Where I lie down to dream, but not to sleep,
And half afraid, see my expiring lamp
Shoot its vague, ghastly flicker o'er the walls
Like the thin robes of specters in a dance
Around a felon's grave, and fire and brand
Before the insolent and prying guest;
Had that sweet lard lain down to sleep and dream
In this antique, dim, melancholy room,
He would have heard a wider voice than leave,
Kissed each other's foreheads in the dusk
Of summer eve, or dance of flitting breeze,
Or hoarse murmur of the restless waves.
Roar, roar! Great God, how Thou dost make the walls
The free, wide-winged, thundering winds of heaven,
A mighty organ-pipe to roll Thy praise.
Thy power and glory through the frightened world
Sluicing, I draw my weary frame behind
Its pillow shield, responsive to the jar,
The thrill, and horror of the oak-ribbed walls
And shivering plumes far out upon the waste
That whirled and groan at every wounded nerve.
The air bolts as it never bolted before,
Since God threw wide the windows of the sky
And hurled such deluges of darkness, hail,
And thunder rain, and blanching the carnage-bills
From out the old world's guilt-bedraggled skirts.
Tossing her rock-walled hills as winds, dead leaves,
Whirling her vineyard, towers, and golden vales,
Her temples, herds, and throngs, within a gulf
Of storm, voiceless, starless nothingness.
Rave, rave, ye winds! and clatter the name,
The power, and terror of your master, God!
For there is One that holds you in His hand
Or bids you forth to pile the world with wrecks.
To-night, my soul is leaning toward the shrine
Of that respondent, sweet idolatry
Which drew the hearts and hoary forms of Eld—
The glorious bard and wild-eyed priestesses
That round amid Dodona's oaks and heard
In Tempe's olive shade the song of nymphs,
And charmed plumes of voluptuous Pan,
And saw in clouds and the red path of storms
The wat'ry brow and lifted arm of Jove.
Their present eyes interpreted the light
Of the Undying Dream, the Life to come,
And in the calm and ruffled elements
In streams that wandered through the solemn groves,
In flowers and stars and smiling autumn winds
That shook the fruited boughs from the mellow boughs,
And shouting War that blackens the green hills
And dashes all their limpid purls with blood,
They saw a living likeness of themselves
In passion, love, and the grim lust of power.
And I, to-night, can deem the caped winds
Have leaped forth at the loud signal-blow
Of their great lord against the dungeon walls
In wrath and vengeance bearing sword and shield,
The lofty front and fiery blood of gods
To seize and tear the royal emerald folds
That robe the rocky shoulders of the hills
That roar again! Heaven! when did mortal car
Rock on the verge of so fierce a wall?
Or fancy eddy down the boiling gulf
Of sound or iron-tongued and thunder-barbed?
All, all the groans that rocked old Canaan's hills,
The black-hipped cannon whose tremendous growl
Rent the dun sulphur-dome of Waterloo,
Were Zephyr-notes beside your mountain harp,
Of awful shades and hollow angling winds,
Hell from beneath is moved to walk the earth,
And flute her drunken joy along the crags!
The stars have toppled from their diamond thrones
And drowned their fiery foreheads in the sea
Of frozen darkness and chaotic night—
The keen gusts seize the burly, spectral drifts
And scourge them forth in sheets of drifting fog,
Till the wide atmosphere and haggard fields
Seem one black sea of hungry, wrangling sound,
And this bleak hill, the lone, beleaguered Isle,
On which the frosty and funeral clang
Like some enormous, grim, funeral bell,
Rung by the red and bony hands of ghoul,
To deal their triumph o'er a shattered world!
And I, in trembling, ask the distant winds,
The howling, trenchant snows and my own heart,
How shall another summer morning burst
Or violet open in the icy vale?
LITCHFIELD, Conn.

AN ESCAPED NICARAGUAN SOLDIER.—Mr. Chas. H. Bull, late of Walker's service, has just returned to this city, having escaped from the great filibuster and his army several months since. He was accompanied by Joseph Winters, also formerly of this city. They were greatly embarrassed in making their flight, and suffered almost unparalleled hardships. For days they were without any description of food and then were forced to subsist on raw mule flesh in a state of partial decomposition. They finally, after many narrow escapes from starvation in mountain passes and dreary valleys and plains, reached the capital of Costa Rica. There they were hospitably received and entertained. After remaining some time at Costa Rica, the government of that country forwarded them to Panama, and thence paid their expenses to New Orleans.

Mr. Bull represents the entire Costa Rican population as highly incensed against Walker, and perfectly united in the determination to take him, dead or alive.

ASSAULT UPON A LADY.—Yesterday afternoon there was a very interesting and somewhat exciting trial before Esquire Clements. The parties engaged were Mrs. Henry N. Sands, who charged Capt. Geo. P. Frazier with having violently assaulted and otherwise maltreated her. These persons reside a few miles above the city, and are neighbors. The hogs and cattle of Mrs. S. trespassed upon the farm of Capt. F. The latter was about to shoot them, when the lady appeared with a revolver in her girdle. An affray took place, and Capt. F. was more rude than gallant. The magistrate bound him over to answer for the assault.

Mrs. Sands has instituted a civil suit against Capt. Frazier, laying her damages at $5,000. Mr. Wolfe was counsel for Frazier, and Messrs. Rousseau for Mrs. S.

NOVEL SCENE.—The cost of bringing a child into the world varies according to circumstances, latitude and other important matters. Yesterday a jury in the county court fixed it at $15. A German physician, in the upper part of the city, had sued one of his countrymen for $60, the fee in one of these interesting cases that adds to the population and misery of the world. The husband objected to such an extraordinary child. All of the distinguished members of the medical faculty in the city were called in to testify as to the value of the services rendered. Much learning, science, and medicine was expended upon the jury, and the opinion of the doctors seemed to be that the charge was altogether just. The jury, however, cut down the fee to the moderate dimensions mentioned above.

The trial of Eckel and Mrs. Cunningham has been set in the court of oyer and terminer at New York for the first Monday in May.

RIVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

PORTLAND TELEGRAPH LINE.

Office at Portland, Delme's Drug Store, on the wharf.

Office at Shippingport, in the Canal Office.

Office at Louisville, Union Telegraph Office.

TRADEWATER COAL.—At Tradewater Island, two miles below Caseyville. Price 7 cents. m30 d12
The river fell an inch in the twenty-four hours ending last evening. There were then 6 feet 3 inches water in the canal, and 3 feet 7 inches on the falls.

Sunk.—On Monday morning the steamer Latrobe, bound for Pittsburg, loaded with pig metal, in taking a wood flat in tow opposite Rush Run, twelve miles above Wheeling, ran on a stump and sunk instantly in ten feet of water, and is reported broken in two. The Latrobe was purchased a few weeks since by Mr. Zinn Smith, to run from Ironton to Pittsburg, and is valued at $5,000. She was not insured. The carriage of her cargo (pig metal) to Pittsburg was to be his first payment on the purchase of that steamer. The Latrobe is an old boat, but has always been regarded as a staunch, reliable steamer. This loss, we fear, will be a serious drawback to Mr. Smith, her new owner.

Coalboat Sunk.—A coalboat belonging to Martin Walt, of Memphis, was sunk on Saturday night by striking the wreck of the A. L. Shotwell, at the head of "Paddy's Hen." Loss $1,400. The coal was intended for Memphis.

For New Orleans.—The steamer Rainbow, Capt. Holcroft, leaves for New Orleans this evening. The R. has fine accommodations and attentive officers. To Mr. Huston we are indebted for late papers and a copy of the manifest and memorandum.

For Memphis.—The great Memphis packet Northern, Capt. J. F. Smith, will start for Memphis this evening. Mr. Archer, an accomplished gentleman, is the clerk. The Northern has gained an enviable reputation along the Ohio and Mississippi since she entered the Memphis trade. On her late trip up from Memphis she attended to all her way business and gained on the Rainbow nearly four hours. We thank Mr. Archer for the above favors.

For St. Louis.—The Alvin Adams, Capt. Lamb, is the regular packet for St. Louis to-day. The A. is the fleetest and one of the most splendid boats in the line.

The Jacob Strader is the mailboat for Cincinnati to-day.

The Diamond is the regular packet for Evansville this evening.

The D. A. Given was looked for last night, and if she arrived, will leave for Nashville this evening. The Given is a regular packet.

The John Gault passed Smithland yesterday. She is due to-morrow morning, and is advertised to return to Nashville to-morrow evening.

The steamer Woodford passed Vicksburg yesterday, 38 hours out from New Orleans. This is very good running.

The Montgomery will be here this morning, and leave for New Orleans to-morrow.

Capt. Marshall has telegraphed from Evansville that the R. W. Adams will arrive at 11 o'clock this morning, and return to New Orleans to-morrow.

Sold.—The large sternwheeler Adriatic has been sold at St. Louis to Capt. Stackpole, for $25,000.

Capt. Holland's new boat for the Missouri river trade was towed to the city wharf yesterday, where she is to be completed. Capt. H. thinks that he will be able to finish her by the end of the month.

The following items we take from the New Albany Tribune of yesterday:

We learn that Capt. Hinkle contracted on Tuesday with Wible & Conover for the hull of a new boat for the Attakapas trade.

Capt. Sturgeon, of the steamer Empress, will contract in this city for a first class boat on his return from New Orleans.

NEWS FROM MALAGA.—The Washington Union of this morning, contains a letter from Malaga, dated 31st January, which says the Raisin crop has been very short, the last vintage being estimated at about 600,000 boxes Muscatels, whilst other descriptions show a still greater decrease, owing to a disease which has been very general. Prices have ruled very high, averaging $2 for R. M., and $2 25 for ordinary layers, for the American market. London layers $3 to $4 per box. Stock at the end of the year about 30,000 boxes. The Oil crop about an average. Wine very deficient. Freight to the United States dull at $8 per ton.

It is stated on the authority of letters from missionaries of the Methodist Episcopal Church, that a furious war is raging in Liberia, in the vicinity of Cape Palmas, between the colonists and the natives. Thirty-seven American houses, and much property, are stated to have been destroyed, and twenty-eight lives have been lost. All missionary and business matters were at a stand.

Gen. Canineau is out in a letter in the N. Y. Times, in which he states as his belief that letters from Gen. Walker, Gen. Henningsen, and other officers to the United States have been intercepted by the English officials, and that Gen. Walker is now at the head of the de facto and only government of Nicaragua.

There were more emigrants in Liverpool, up to the 20th of March, waiting passage to America than were ever known in previous years, except in 1854. The price, which had averaged up to that time, £3 to £3 10s., was raised to £4 and £4 10s. The fact that there was a scarcity of ships contributed to this rise in the price of passage.

We understand that Mr. T. G. Lloyd intends making a long tour through the State of Kentucky for the purpose of lecturing on the subject of temperance. We recommend him to the friends of temperance wherever he may travel. He has done a great deal of good in the temperance cause here.

The Deaf and Dumb Asylum of Indiana has been suspended, and the pupils returned to their various homes. This is in consequence of the Legislature failing to make the usual annual appropriations.

The case of Goepper, who was convicted in the County Court on the charge of bastardy, has been compromised by his paying the injured young woman $200.

The most important intelligence by the European steamer is, that the recent elections in England have resulted in favor of the present ministry.

YELLOW FEVER AT RIO.—The captain of the bark Nameaug, which arrived at New York on Saturday, fifty days from Rio, reports that yellow fever, in its worst form, was raging there, and that very few of the crews of northern vessels, trading there, escape an attack of the pestilence.

The Southern Bank of Kentucky has contracted with Mr. John Haley, of Frankfort, for the erection of a banking house at Russellville. It is to cost $22,000.

The frigate Niagara went into commission at New York, on Monday, and was ready for sea, with everything on board except her 12 swivel guns. She carries four 32's as signal guns, merely.

[From this morning's Journal.]

HALIFAX, April 9.

The steamer Niagara arrived from Liverpool with advices to the 28th ult., three days later than those of the Canadian.

The result of the election has been favorable to the government.

Russia has reduced the tariff on cotton and woolen goods one-half.

The Emperor of China disavows Viceroy Yeg's proceeding.

Persia.—A battle took place between the Persian and British cavalry at Bushire, in which the Persians were routed.

The Niagara arrived at 30 minutes past 4 o'clock, P. M. Passed the steamer Persia when near Liverpool on the 28th, the steamer Eimu of Cape Clear, and the steamer America on the 2d inst., in latitude 40.

The steamer City of Washington sailed on the 28th, and touched at Southampton on the same day. England continues in the election ferment, but few members have been returned. Appearances favor Lord Palmerston.

The Board of Trade returns show a large percentage over last year's imports, a decrease in cotton and breadstuffs, and an increase in provisions and tobacco.

Bullion in Bank has slightly increased.

France.—But little business of importance has been transacted in Paris, the Conference meeting of the 24th being merely for the purpose of receiving Prussian propositions. Another meeting of the Conference was held on the 25th ult., to receive propositions from Switzerland, which differ from those received from the Prussian Government. An amicable settlement is confidently anticipated.

An expedition against the Kalmuks has been projected, under the command of Marshal Baudouin.

It is reported that England has ceded to France the Longwood House and Napoleon's tomb at St. Helena.

Spain.—The Spanish Government contemplates laying a submarine telegraph between Cuba and the United States.

The first division of the fleet to invade Mexico would sail about the 28th of March for Havana.

Germany.—The German powers decline intervention with other European powers in the quarrel between Denmark and the confederation, on the ground that the question is purely federal, in which they, as well as Denmark, act as members of the confederation.

Prussia and France are said to be favorable to Denmark in this dispute.

Austria.—The Austrian government, in recalling its representative from the Court of Turin, has addressed a circular dispatch, setting forth reasons for withdrawal, to all its different agents in European courts, stating that the Vienna Cabinet is dissatisfied with Count Cavour's reply to its complaints of the Piedmontese press, and of the tolerance with which Sardinia treats their attacks.

It also seems new offense in the language used by Sardinia on the occasion of the debates relative to the fortification of Alessandria.

The dispatch adds that Austria has become convinced that Piedmont seeks to head the insurrectionary movement in Italy, which, if successful, would be the destruction of Austrian dominion in Italy.

In view of these facts, Austria deems that her dignity will not permit her to maintain official relations with Sardinia; nevertheless, this measure will not be followed by others of a more hostile character, as Austria is determined to do nothing to compromise the peace of Europe.

Russia.—It is reported that Russia again refuses to admit the British consuls to the Black Sea, until the allied evacuation is completed.

Persia.—The insurrection is spreading. The insurgent at Peshawar has seized the Shah's uncle, and threaten to kill him unless he shall be ransomed.

CHICAGO, April 9.

At the election of officers of this county the Republican ticket was generally successful. Whetton (Republican) is reelected Chief Justice of Wisconsin. Majority unknown. Noted definite from Iowa. Dubuque city Democratic except one ward, in which there is a Republican gain. Davenport city Democratic, county Republican.

The Illinois Central and Rock Island Railroad connection to LaSalle is completed.

CINCINNATI, April 9, P. M.

River rising slowly, with about 9 feet water in the channel. The weather is dark and lowering, indicating more rain, though cool. Wind from the northwest.

The Chamber of Commerce to-day passed resolutions welcoming George Peabody to Cincinnati, and tendering him a dinner. He is now stopping at the Burnet House.

WASHINGTON, April 9.

The administration has had under consideration the subject of Indian difficulties in Florida, and such measures are now in progress as to lead to the belief that their removal will be peacefully effected.

Mr. Denver, ex-Congress of California, and now in Ohio, has been notified of his appointment as Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

It is asserted upon good authority that the general question of appointment of Foreign Ministers will not be considered by the Cabinet for a month or two hence.

EVANSVILLE, April 9, P. M.

Boats down.—North Star, Southerner, Jas. Wood, and Prairie Rose.

Boats up.—Memphis, J. P. Tweed, James Montgomery, R. W. Adams, Bay City, and Melnotte.

Weather clear, mild, and pleasant.

ST. LOUIS, April 9, P. M.

River still about stationary, with plenty of water in all the upper streams. Weather cool, clear, and pleasant. Business very lively.

PITTSBURGH, April 9, P. M.

THE RELIGION OF THE ST. LOUIS EDITORS.—We find the following in the St. Louis Herald in regard to the religion of the brethren of the press in that city: The Herald says.

The editor of the Leader is a Catholic; the editor of the Democrat a Jew; the editor of the Republican an old fogey; the editor of the Anzeiger an Infidel; and the editor of the News a Mohammedan.

At the second annual meeting of the New Albany Young Men's Christian Union, the following officers were elected:

C. C. Hine, President; William Keller, Vice President; W. H. Daniel, Corresponding Secretary; A. Castlen, Recording Secretary; J. M. Day, Treasurer; Samuel Avery, Librarian; Library Committee—F. C. Johnson, R. R. Town, W. T. Courtney, Josiah Bliss, and Rev. Chas. Hutchinson.

EMIGRATION TO CALIFORNIA.—We take the following from the New York Times of Tuesday:

The United States mail steamship Illinois left New York Monday, at 2 1/2 o'clock P. M., for Applewall. The Illinois carried about six hundred passengers. So great has been the demand for passages that the tickets were all sold two days prior to the day of sailing, and many who delayed coming to the city until the last day or two, failed to secure their passage, and were obliged to wait until the 20th of the month for the George Law. The Nicaragua or Morgan line of steamers has been hauled off the route. It is reported that these steamers have sunk the Company upon an average from fifty to seventy-five thousand dollars a trip, making an aggregate loss of nearly a million of dollars since the unfortunate difficulties commenced in Nicaragua. The carrying of passengers to California, at low fares, has never been a paying business, and nothing but the support derived from government for carrying the mails has kept the lines in existence.

The usual amount of a vindictive was practised upon the passengers in the sale of tickets by the Illinois. Some cases of great hardship occurred. It is estimated that three hundred persons are swindled every month in this city in the purchase of tickets for California, the aggregate of their losses being some $6,000 per month.

A KIDNAPPED FREEMAN.—The Vicksburg Sentinel has the following facts concerning a person who ought to be well known to certain parties in Kentucky. It says:

A petition was, on the 5th inst., presented to the Judges of the High Court of Errors and Appeals at Jackson on behalf of Severa Lugo, who claimed to be a citizen of Mexico, praying for a writ of habeas corpus. Lugo states that he is a Mexican by birth, and came over to the United States with some of the volunteers returning from the Mexican war, when he was about seven years old, (he returned with the body of Col. McKee), that he was kidnapped in Kentucky and taken to New Orleans and sold as a slave, since which time he has passed through the hands of some eight or ten different persons, as a slave, under the name of Lewis, and was, at the time of filing the petition, in the hands of a trader for sale. Judge Fisher promptly granted the writ, and the boy was brought before him. On a preliminary examination the proof was sufficient to induce his honor to place the boy in the hands of an officer of the Court for safe keeping, and the parties were given time to prepare the case for a final hearing.

DAILY REVIEW OF THE MARKET.

LOUISVILLE, April 10.

Money market easy. Exchange as before. Market very dull.

In provisions, sales of 135 hbls mow pork at $22, 6 casks ribbed sides at 11 1/2 cts, pkgs extra, on an order, $20.00 lbs of clear sides from store to a dealer at $11.50, and a few thousand lbs from store to a dealer at 11 1/2 cts. Some little meat offering from the country sold at 8 1/2, 10 1/2, and 11 1/2 cts. Private dispatches report the New Orleans market dull, and they quote shoulders 9 1/2 and ribbed sides 11 1/2 cts.

In the grocery market, sales of 25 hbls sugar at 11 1/2 cts, 20 hbls refined sugar at 14 cts, 125 hbls No 1 coffee at 11 1/2, and 70 bags at 11 cts. Rice 6 1/2 cts.

Sales of raw whisky at 22 1/2 cts.

A sale of 40 hbls prime tallow at 11 1/2 cts.

A sale of 60 city-cured dry-salted hides at 17 1/2 cts.

Sales of hay from the levee at $22 and from store at $23 1/2 ton in lots.

Sales of 60 pkgs medium No.

FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 10, 1857.

in thickness, the ground was frozen solid enough to bear a loaded dray, and the fruit and young vegetation were completely killed. So far as we can learn, it made a clean sweep of the fruit of all kinds, and nearly every variety of garden vegetables will have to be replanted. The thermometer yesterday morning was several degrees below freezing point, and we fear that the blighting effects are still worse further South, where the season and vegetation are more advanced.

Over the brass water faucet, which, by the way, is burnished like a mirror, there is painted a water-cooler, and at the place where his cot touches the wall is represented the head of a fashionable bedstead; all this is executed in a highly artistic manner, and will bear close examination. ## A TIME FOR EVERY THING AND EVERY THING IN ITS TIME.

THAT you may realize the advantage of the above sentiment, call at
WM. KENDRICK'S,
71, Third Street, Louisville,
where a large stock of Watches may be found from which to make a selection, of a variety of styles, suited for ladies or gentlemen's wear, some of which were made to order to special order, some with Magic Cases, others with Locket concealed in the back for miniature, others enameled and set with Diamonds, and many other styles worthy of attention, all of which are warranted and offered on fair terms.

To those who are looking for Christmas, New Year, or Bridal Presents, I would call attention to my stock of nearly all of which is manufactured by a special order, of the very latest styles, such as Pitchers, Goblets, Cups, Chalice, Spoon, Salt Cellars, Fish, Pie, and Cake Knives, Forks and Spoons, of every description.
SILVER WARE,

Others may prefer for a present a handsome piece of
JEWELRY.
If so, call and examine my stock, to which I am adding every day, direct from the manufacturers, the latest styles and most desirable patterns, of which you can judge best by calling and examining for yourself, at my store, No. 71 Third Street, between Main and Market.

Having rearranged and greatly improved our store, we are enabled to make a better and more satisfactory display of our goods than heretofore. These alterations have prevented our making the usual daily announcement of the receipt of new goods. We now invite our friends, as well as the public generally, to an examination of our new stock. Having one of our firm constantly in the Eastern market, enables us at all times to present the newest and most desirable goods, and at the same time, we shall be every inducement to purchasers in the terms, price, and elegance of our stock of goods, which we offer at our price only.
